Disabled woman lives in terror after biker's abuse

BY SARAH LEE
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A MUM-OF-TWO says she is too terrified to leave her own home after a man verbally abused and swore at her for being disabled.

Tracey Browne, 50, from Milton Keynes, who suffers from arthritis and has damaged nerves on the left side of her body, was approached by a motorcyclist as she was parking her car in a disabled bay close to The Point, near Midsummer Place, at about 3.30pm on Wednesday, October 7.

Ms Browne, who is too scared to reveal her address, said: "He tried to put his head through my car window and when he noticed my blue disabled badge he said 'Disabled are you? That's my job half done then.' After that, I sat in my car shaking."

The motorcyclist swore at her repeatedly and made comments about her disability. And when Ms Browne, pictured, went off towards the shops she again encountered the man, who made further comments while swearing.

She added: "I couldn't believe I saw him again. I was still shaking when he hurled more abuse at me. I quickly walked into the Body Shop in the centre:mk and just burst into tears.

"Since the incident I have been terrified of going out on my own – I just think he's coming after me. I won't even go to my local shop on my own in case he's watching me.

"I want this man to pay for what he has done and to prevent him from doing it to someone more vulnerable. He can't get away with doing what he did and for making me feel the way I do."

Investigating officer PC Dilshan Direkze, based at Milton Keynes Police Station, said: "This was a completely unprovoked attack, which left the vulnerable victim very upset.

"She was simply going about her normal business, visiting the shopping centre, and did not expect to receive a terrible volley of abuse relating to her disability.

"The incident occurred in front of shops and near the open market and close to some parked taxis and bus stops."

The man was riding a blue Suzuki motorbike with a registration ending in RBD.

He is white, aged in his mid-30s, around 5ft 6ins, with short, light sandy blond-coloured hair.

PC Direkze added: "I would urge anyone who saw what happened, or who may recognise the offender from the description provided, to come forward and provide us with the information that can help us arrest this man."

Witnesses can call 101.

Learning lifesaving skills

BY PHILIP MCELENEY
editor@mk-news.co.uk

STUDENTS at a city school are learning CPR after one of its pupils tried to help a woman who drowned at the notorious Blue Lagoon.

Emily Johnson, 20, died at the Bletchley nature reserve in July last year after she suddenly disappeared from the surface while swimming.

Chelsea Hall, 15, and former pupils at Sir Herbert Leon Academy in the town, performed CPR on Emily but their efforts were unfortunately in vain.

On Friday the school held a CPR awareness day to honour their bravery and more than 200 pupils gave up their lunch break to learn the lifesaving skill.

Chelsea, who is one of the leaders of the school's voluntary CPR training programme, said: "I've enjoyed teaching it. I got to teach quite a few people on Friday – about 13 or 14 – and a few people have asked me out of school.

"I think it's quite easy and now it's about helping to teach everyone.

"Hopefully they won't go through what I did."

Friday's session was the culmination of nearly 350 pupils voluntarily giving up their spare time over the last year to be trained in CPR and the school hopes to teach its remaining pupils the skill over the next few months.

Chloe Marshall, a PE teacher and head of health and social care at the academy, said: "We put the sessions on outside of lessons so the kids had to come in their own time. This meant they weren't forced to do it and they really feel like they've achieved something.

"We've trained about half the school now – about 350 in total – and there are around another 250 to go.

"You can still apply for the grants from the British Heart Foundation so in theory every single school in Milton Keynes could get a kit and teach their pupils."

Immigrants held after shop check

TWO Sri Lankan immigrants have been arrested by the Home Office following an operation at a convenience store in Fishermead.

Acting on intelligence, officers visited Sabeeh Mini Market in Gurnards Avenue shortly after 6pm last Wednesday.

Staff were questioned to establish whether they had the right to live and work in the UK.

A 33-year-old man was found to have overstayed his student visa and a 23-year-old man was found to be a failed asylum seeker. Both men have been detained pending their removal from the UK.

The business was served with a notice warning that a financial penalty of up to £20,000 per illegal worker will be imposed unless it can demonstrate that appropriate right-to-work document checks were carried out.

Home Office Inspector Robert Tompkins said: "All of our operations are intelligence led and information from the public is a vital part of this work. I would encourage people with detailed and specific information about illegal immigration to contact us."

Visit www.onemk.co.uk for more information on how you can report suspected immigration abuse.

Ban for neighbour

A NIGHTMARE neighbour has been banned from entering Woburn between 5.30pm and 9.30am on weekdays – and all hours at weekends.

Stephen Aylott, 53, of Eleanor Close, Woburn, was ordered to live at his mother's address in Arlesey. He was found guilty on October 1 of breaching a restraining order after he contacted neighbours he had taunted over their weight by oinking at them. Aylott was sentenced on Thursday at Luton Magistrates' Court.

Hopes of deal for Tesco site

HOPES have been raised that a deal may have been made for a site put up for sale by Tesco in Newport Pagnell.

The retail giant had wanted to build a supermarket on the former Aston Martin works site in Tickford Street – but shelved the plans in January for financial reasons.

One month later, Tesco announced the site was up for sale, but eight months down the line no further announcement has yet been made on its future.

The site is earmarked for mixed residential and employment use in the town's neighbourhood plan.

But hopes of a potential deal were raised after surveyors were spotted at the site.

Phil Winsor, the Mayor of Newport Pagnell, told MK NEWS: "We don't know any more other than that there were surveyors on site recently. It would be nice if Tesco sped up the process and something happened, but it's not our role to put pressure on them."

A Tesco spokesman would only confirm that the site is still up for sale.

Juicy offer: Lily Morris, aged seven, takes a bite out of an apple watched by Tesco's Steve Sharpe

Store's free fruit offer ap-pealing

BY CHRIS KNIGHT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

AN INITIATIVE offering free fruit to children while their parents shop has been introduced at a supermarket.

Apples, bananas, pears and oranges have been made available near the entrance of Tesco in Wolverton in an extension of the company's nationwide Farm to Fork scheme.

Seven-year-old Lily Morris, a student at the town's Bushfield School, was one of the first to grab a free apple and mum Lucy said: "I think it is a brilliant idea – it keeps her occupied while I shop as well as keeping her healthy.

"There are quite a few children who don't get any fruit in their lunch boxes, so this will be great for them."

The store is the first to introduce the initiative in Milton Keynes, although it has been successfully trialled in Bedford, Flitwick and Tring.

Helen Hughes, services manager at the Wolverton store, organises the Farm to Fork initiative in the area.

She said: "The great thing about this is that we are trying to make sure children get their five a day and they also get to learn about where their food comes from.

"As part of the initiative, we invite local schools into the shop and show the pupils round our counters and bakery. They are handed work sheets as well – it is really interactive and great fun and has proved really successful."

The offer of free fruit was introduced last Tuesday and duty manager Janet Melville is hopeful it will become a permanent fixture in the store.

She added: "It has been a huge success in our stores in Bedford, Flitwick and Tring and we are going to trial it here and see how it goes.

"Hopefully, it will be a success in our store and we can continue it indefinitely."

WHAT YOU SAID:

Patricia Musk: "Great idea to encourage kids to eat more fruit, hopefully more Tesco stores will do this."

Alexandra Komissarova: "We made use of this as it's our local supermarket. Saved my sanity doing the weekly shop with two small children who happily munched on a pear and an apple while we walked round. What a great idea and so much better than crisps etc."

Debbie Boughton Blake: "I think it's brilliant, well done Tesco."

Stony top for reported drug crimes

STONY Stratford had the most drug-related crime reports outside Central Milton Keynes this summer.

The figures, which are collected by the website POLICE.UK, show the number of drug-related reports that were referred to Thames Valley Police in July and August.

Although Central Milton Keynes rated higher and there were also eight drug-related reports of crime at The National Bowl in July (due to the Electric Daisy Carnival) – Stony comes out as the leader with six drug-related crime reports.

Our plea to Minister

AS AUTHORS of the Wolverton Town Centre Neighbourhood Plan, we are hugely disappointed that Milton Keynes Council approved the planning application to replace the Agora with mainly four storey flats.

The debate held on the evening of the planning committee showed that many councillors had significant concerns about the size and scale of the development, the reduction in bus waiting facilities and the levels of affordable housing being delivered (25 per cent of the development rather than the 30 per cent required).

We have always said that while it will be very good to see the Agora replaced, the scheme put forward by Brickhill Estates was not the best that it could be. We are sure it would not have been accepted in other older towns in Milton Keynes – so why was it acceptable for Wolverton?

As a result of these concerns, we decided to ask the Secretary of State Greg Clark MP to 'call in' the planning application for him to deal with.

This has already happened with another neighbourhood plan related planning application for the extension of the intu shopping centre in Central Milton Keynes, which Central Milton Keynes Town Council and others felt did not comply with the Business Neighbourhood Plan for CMK.

It seems that despite the hard work done in creating the neighbourhood plan, Milton Keynes Council pays little regard to the wishes of local people as expressed through such plans.

By calling in the Agora planning application, at the same time as the intu application is called in, we are hoping that the Government will begin to question the actions of the local planning authority and its overall attitude to neighbourhood planning.

So for now, or until Milton Keynes Council starts paying more attention to neighbourhood plans, our message to all those communities across Milton Keynes currently considering or working on a neighbourhood plan is simple – they are not worth the paper they are written on so don't bother!

Mark's Monthly Focus

Unified approach needed to tackle homelessness

HOMELESSNESS appears to be on the rise in our city and is a subject of growing concern for many of us.

Having had experience of sleeping on the street, albeit it for only very short periods, this is a life that nobody would voluntarily choose. Nonetheless, with the local number increasing and winter approaching, we must act urgently and a concerted effort by all those involved is the best means to do so.

Here in Milton Keynes we have many organisations that have always done great work for the homeless in the city, both prior and in response to the recent exacerbation of the issue. These include the YMCA, which cares for 16 to 65-year-olds and is currently under expansion; St Mungo's, which supports those aged 16-21; and Orbit, which has both a hostel for over 25s and a separate mother and baby unit. Due to no fault of their own, communication between interested parties has at times been difficult, resulting in fragmented efforts to tackle it.

What I am therefore calling for is a co-operative and collaborative approach to the issue, whereby we facilitate greater co-operation and frequent dialogue between organisations and the more proactive approach now being taken by the council. In doing so, this would allow the necessary voices to be heard and discussions to be had, hopefully laying the foundations for a unified strategy and best use of resources.

That said, this response does not rely solely on the work of local authorities and organisations. Central Government also has a part to play in this. I have recently written to Marcus Jones MP, the Minister for Local Government, who reassured me that tackling homelessness and rough sleeping remains a key priority. He explained that, since 2010, there has been some £500million invested in support of local authorities and voluntary sector agencies that help the most vulnerable in our society as a whole. Significantly, the Minister also agreed to visit MK in order to see first-hand the scale of the issue.

After all, these vulnerable people need the support and resources required for them to break out of this lifestyle they have not chosen and move into a sustained one. And, in my view at least, it is by a unified approach from all stakeholders that this can be achieved.

Knife raid horror for shop's owner

BY CHRIS KNIGHT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A SHOP owner has been left stunned after being cut by a knife in a robbery in broad daylight.

Yasodaran Kirubanantham was working alone in Emerton's Newsagents in Church Street, Wolverton, at about 4.45pm on Thursday when the robber demanded he open the till.

After slashing at him with a knife, the robber grabbed about £300 before escaping on a small pushbike.

Mr Kirubanantham required five stitches on his hand.

He said: "I have owned the shop for eight years and this has never happened to us before – I can't believe it.

"We are usually quite busy at that time but no-one else was in the shop.

"It is a very good community, so this was quite a shock."

Mr Kirubanantham was working behind the till when the robber entered the shop wearing a hooded black jacket, dark jeans and a black scarf across his face.

The 37-year-old added: "I was behind the till and the guy came through the door all in dark clothing. I could only see his eyes.

"After repeating 'open the till' at me, I pushed him away and he suddenly brought his knife out and swung at me. I went to block it but it cut my fingers – if I hadn't, it would have come straight into my chest or body.

"I was very scared about how much I was bleeding, but now I just feel lucky it was nothing more. I called the police and they cordoned off the area. A helicopter came out too but they could not find him."

Thames Valley Police have described the robber as a 5ft 7ins Asian man and anyone with any information is urged to call 101.

■ In another incident, a male shopkeeper was slashed by robbers carrying large kitchen knives as he answered their demands to open the till in his One Stop Shop store in Tenterden Crescent, Kents Hill, on Monday night.

Any witnesses to the crime are urged to call police on 101 or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Home offers rejected: Colin and Teresa Ennew, who are threatened with eviction

Couple face life on the streets

BY SARAH LEE
editor@mk-news.co.uk

MILTON Keynes Council has hit back at claims it is not doing enough to house the homeless, saying a number of people often reject properties offered to them.

After more than a decade living in a bungalow in Springfield, an elderly couple are claiming they face life on the streets – despite being offered a number of houses by the council.

Teresa and Colin Ennew were notified earlier this month they have until the end of October to vacate their council accommodation after Mrs Ennew retired from her role as a warden at sheltered accommodation Springfield Court.

Teresa, 63, lives at her home linked to her employment with her son Nick, 26, and 66-year-old husband Colin.

She said: "We were offered a two-bed bungalow in Great Linford and a two-bedroom bungalow in Olney but given Colin's medical conditions we felt Olney was too far and the Great Linford property was too small.

"We were also offered a three-bedroom house in Emerson Valley. I was over the moon, until I realised it was an ex-warden's property we had previously refused.

"We just want to retire in a comfortable home close to our support network. It's as if we have no say in our future."

A council spokesman said: "Due to a very limited supply of housing and increasing demand, the council is only able to offer what is available and, while this is usually accepted, there will be occasions when people reject the housing offered to them.

"We have been working with Mr and Mrs Ennew over the past 12 months to find suitable accommodation for them as a result of Mrs Ennew's retirement.

"A number of properties have been offered but they did not feel these were suitable.

"The case has been reviewed by a members appeal panel, which found the offers of accommodation to be suitable so the council has been left with no alternative but to take possession action."

Mr and Mrs Ennew have now made a homeless application, which is currently being assessed.

A charity sleep out

FUNDRAISERS are hoping to raise cash for a homeless charity by spending the night sleeping rough on the streets.

Richard Cooper is one of up to four people who will be sleeping on the streets on November 20.

They will be raising funds for Open Door, an MK charity set up in 1987 to provide housing solutions and support for single homeless people.

Council overspend is blamed on asylum-seeking children

CITY MPs have said it is 'simply untrue' for Milton Keynes Council to blame a budget overspend on the cost of caring for asylum-seeking children.

At the end of August, 24 asylum-seeking children were looking for care – and this has been listed as one of the reasons the council is predicting an overspend of £1.630million for its children's services.

Councillor Rob Middleton, the cabinet member for resources and commercialism, said: "If the migrant crisis continues and Central Government doesn't interfere we will continue to see pressures on the council's budget.

"If residents don't want taxpayers' money to be spent on this they need to contact their local MPs."

But a joint statement on behalf of MPs Mark Lancaster and Iain Stewart said: "It is simply untrue for the council to blame the budget overspend solely on refugees.

"As the council will know Central Government covers the costs of refugees for 12 months and the Home Office is actively looking at providing additional funding beyond that."

Buszy cash row

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

MONEY generated from a car park at The Buszy was being spent by a community group when it shouldn't have been.

That is according to Milton Keynes Development Partnership (MKDP), which owns the car park next to the listed building in Elder Gate.

It is from this building that the Make A Difference (MaD) group runs a number of community services, such as adult learning classes and disabled youth clubs.

But MaD recently announced it was leaving The Buszy due to parking income being taken away from it by MKDP – which is owned by Milton Keynes Council but classed as a different entity.

MaD said the loss of parking income – which comes into effect on November 13 – would result in it having to stop running its services.

Hundreds of people are expected to march to the Civic Offices for a council meeting this evening in protest against the decision.

But MKDP chief executive Charles Macdonald has said MaD was 'technically in breach' of its lease by spending the income.

He told a public meeting at the venue on Thursday: "The issue is all to do with the car parking income. This is a public asset and under the terms of the lease, MaD does not have the right to take the income from that."

He has since told this newspaper: "They are technically acting in breach.

"It's right that the income flows through MKDP into the public purse."

But Mr Macdonald was 'reluctant' to say how much MaD had supposedly spent.

And Denise Davis-Boreham, the chief executive of MaD, hit back at the claims, saying: "In March this year MKDP suggested a 'profit-share' on the car park.

"If we weren't allowed income from the car park why would it suggest this?

"As a community interest company all our profits are reinvested into activities."

The council said it would be 'inappropriate' to comment.

Fears over 600 jobs at Red Bull

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

QUESTIONS are being asked over what will happen to the 600 jobs at the city's Red Bull factory should the team pull out of Formula One at the end of the season.

The rumour mill has been running rampant over whether Red Bull will continue in the sport given their poor performance over the last two years.

The new era of hybrid engines has been unkind to the team and the relationship between Red Bull and engine supplier Renault is now at a stage where it is unlikely to continue next year. But the problem Red Bull has is that other engine suppliers don't seem to want to give their engines to the team.

Mercedes has its own team and seems unwilling to give a competitive edge to one of its rivals, while Ferrari says Red Bull can only have its 2015 engines next season.

Honda is the only other option available to Red Bull other than Renault.

It led Red Bull designer Adrian Newy to say that he felt the team was being 'forced out' of the sport.

"We're possibly going to be forced out of Formula One – Mercedes and Ferrari have refused to supply us out of fear," he told Reuters.

The main Red Bull factory is based at Tilbrook in the south of Milton Keynes, but nothing has been confirmed as to what will happen to the jobs or the site of the factory if the team pulls out of Formula One.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Billy Harley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Bedford, Milton Keynes & Leighton Buzzard areas and Billy is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Billy a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Art project: Children from White Spire School and MK Academy

Touch of colour to our redways

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

STUDENTS have been developing inspiring new artwork to encourage increased use of the city's redways system.

It follows MK NEWS recently launching its Walk Safe campaign calling for more people to use the redways and underpass system which it wants to look and feel safer to encourage increased usage.

Arts charity Create has helped students from White Spire School and Milton Keynes Academy create the artwork.

The project has been designed by Create in consultation with intu Milton Keynes to enable local young people with and without disabilities to collaborate creatively.

Students have started by building and decorating clay birds, constructing a 'bird hotel' and producing models of other wildlife to be used by a professional artist, being commissioned by intu Milton Keynes, as inspiration for new artwork to be included in the redways.

The young people's original artwork will be displayed at intu Milton Keynes during January after being included in a two-month exhibition at KPMG in Canary Wharf, London.

Shelley Peppard, general manager at intu Milton Keynes, said: "This artwork will vastly improve areas of Milton Keynes' redways; we want these green areas to be somewhere that we can all be proud of and that will attract more people to enjoy being outdoors and the benefits that come with that."

Health leader tells GPs to 'up game'

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

THE councillor in charge of health for the city has told under-performing surgeries to 'up their game'.

It comes after the latest set of patient satisfaction results were published.

The figures, which take into account the views of 3,009 people who returned forms, show the city's patients are consistently less satisfied than the national average.

Seventy-seven per cent of patients rated their GP surgery as 'good' compared to the national average of 85 per cent.

Making appointments was a particularly disappointing experience for patients, with just 61 per cent rating it as good compared to the 73 per cent national average.

And Councillor Nigel Long, the cabinet member for health at Milton Keynes Council, believes that the poor performances of a few surgeries are bringing down the figures.

Cllr Long told MK NEWS: "There's a variance in performance and a few surgeries are clearly not performing very well, so some do need to up their game.

"The overall performance is let down by the one or two that don't perform so well."

Another aspect patients found particularly displeasing was the ease of making an appointment by telephone.

Just 56 per cent of people thought the process was 'easy' compared to the national average of 70 per cent.

Cllr Long added: "Maybe it's something to do with practices not having the support staff they need.

"It might even be down to choosing the balance between spending more money on GPs or investing in support staff to help things like that."

The only positives in the figures were that patients were confident and trusted the nurse they had seen last (equalling the national average on 85 per cent) and could see their preferred GP (55 per cent compared to 52 per cent).

In other health news, a new ranking table by the Care Quality Commission shows three in four hospitals are failing. Milton Keynes University Hospital was one of many to 'require improvement'.

> There's a variance in performance. A few surgeries aren't performing very well, so some do need to up their game.

Meeting fans: Alien, featuring Natalie Kassanga from Bletchley, far left, performed for fans at Tesco in Kingston. They were watched by staff members – who included her father Franco – and hundreds of fans. They also spent time signing pictures after their performance

Alien invade Tesco

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

HUNDREDS of fans queued up at Tesco in Kingston to meet X Factor stars Alien.

The group features Natalie Kassanga, an 18-year-old from Bletchley, and they have been described as the 'Spice Girls from Mars' following their successful audition.

The band played four songs on Saturday in front of crowds at the Tesco store, where Natalie's dad Franco Anacreonte works.

They performed their version of Pump It by Black Eyed Peas, as well as versions of No Flex Zone by Rae Sremmurd and Diamonds by Rhianna.

Before signing photos for fans and handing out sweets, they also showed off a new song of their own, named – as the band are – Alien.

The group have made it through to the Judge's Houses section of the ITV1 show, so are just one step away from the live shows.

For Natalie though, it's just the next step in a career, which started aged 11 when she was spotted by this paper in its MKs Top Talent competition.

Now we're backing her to go all the way and help cement Milton Keynes' position on the music map.

Natalie told MK NEWS: "It has been an amazing experience on X Factor. We've been working so hard for two years now and it's a massive achievement to have reached the stage we have. It feels good representing Team MK and promoting my home town."

Her father Franco added: "It has been a long journey since she was four years old and singing into her brush, to seeing her doing well on the X Factor. We're very proud."

DON'T FORGET THE END OF TAX YEAR!

Have you started thinking about the end of the calendar year and the holiday season? Chances are you have! What about the end of the tax year? Did you know that from a financial planning point of view, you should be considering the end of the tax year (5th April) from now?

With the holiday season approaching, if you haven't sorted out your taxes and finances for this tax year, you should act now! April is only a few months away, which leaves you little time to put your financial affairs in order.

With some professional advice and planning, there are many legitimate ways that you can both minimise your tax bill and maximise potential investment returns. Some of the different areas you should be thinking about include the following:

- Maximising pension contributions and reviewing all your existing pension arrangements. Recent changes to pension legislation, mean that it is very important that you take professional advice, to make sure all your pension funds are working for you in the best possible way.

Tony Byrne
Financial Planning Director
Wealth And Tax Management

- Considering investments with valuable tax benefits, to significantly reduce your tax bill. Investments such as Enterprise Investment Schemes, Seed Enterprise Investment Schemes and Venture Capital Trusts are based on government legislation and can significantly reduce the income tax and capital gains tax you pay. There are also potential inheritance tax benefits.
- Investing in tax efficient vehicles like ISAs.
- Making full use of the various tax allowances and credits available.
- Taking advantage of the various allowances etc that are available to your spouse / partner and family.
- Reviewing past, present and future tax and all types of tax - Income Tax, Capital Gains Tax, Inheritance Tax etc.

Of course, as well as tax planning, now is also the ideal time to review all your investments, to make sure they are diversified and working for you in the best possible way.

You should always seek professional advice from a qualified financial planner before investing in EIS, SEIS and VCTs, as these can be higher risk investments that are not readily realisable.

School will take in 3,000 pupils

BY CHRIS KNIGHT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

THE construction of a new campus for Walton High will make it the biggest secondary school in the city.

A turf-cutting ceremony was recently held to celebrate the new £26million Brooklands campus, which is due to create hundreds of new school places in the autumn of 2016.

It is estimated that by 2022, 3,000 students will be enrolled at Walton High across the two campuses.

Michelle Currie, principal of Walton High, insists the academy's current standards at Walnut Tree will be replicated at the new Brooklands campus.

She said: "The standards and expertise of our current campus will be transferred across to Brooklands.

"The infrastructure for learning and teaching is already in place, which means the Brooklands campus will just need to focus upon working with the children.

"Every way you look at it, this is a very beneficial way of opening up a new secondary school."

Turf-cutting ceremony: Lyndon Burrell from developers Wates, Walton High students Georgina Lee and Sampurna Ganguly and Cllr Norman Miles

Once the Brooklands campus is fully operational, Walton High's total intake will dwarf the largest secondary schools in nearby counties. The biggest school in Hertfordshire has 1,800 students, while the totals for Bedfordshire and Northamptonshire are 1,700 and 1,500 respectively.

Councillor Norman Miles, cabinet member responsible for children and school improvement, added: "The building of this campus is part of our wider aim to provide an extra 10,000 places across the borough by 2018.

"This build is part of the council's ambitious £160million programme, which will see the creation of seven new schools and the expansion of 12 more by 2018, cementing the borough's reputation as one of the leading school builders in the country."

Our aim is to offer an exceptional carpet and vinyl service, with quality products and materials. If a jobs worth doing, its worth doing well.

MK LETTERS EXTRA

Letters to The Editor, MK NEWS, 1 Diamond Court, Fox Milne, Milton Keynes MK15 0DU | letters@mk-news.co.uk

MK NEWS reported last week about traffic chaos around The Premier Academy (TPA) in Bletchley, with residents warning it is an 'accident waiting to happen'. We have been inundated with comments from our readers and below is just a selection of them. The reaction to our story prompted a response from the CEO of TPA, Warren Harrison, which can be read in full at onemk.co.uk/news

Tackle the issue

I WAS interested to read Jessica Duncan's article in Wednesday's edition (October 14) regarding the escalating issue of congestion at The Premier Academy on the Eaton Mill Estate.

Undoubtedly, the growing demand for school places in the area has compounded the problem and I fully understand that on occasions inconsiderate parents have parked inappropriately.

However, the 'not in my backyard' holier than thou attitude of the residents' association, which has been a theme for a number of years, is an equal irritation for those of us estate residents who dare to disagree with the select few who control it.

The organised double parking on the impacted roads (as illustrated in the photographs published, although not commented upon perhaps to suggest it was caused solely by parents) instigated by the residents' association does them, the parents trying to get their children safely to school (both via car and walking) or the other residents simply trying to get to work, no favours at all.

I know the issue is school related but all those involved need to stop acting like children and tackle the issue in a dignified and adult manner.

The residents' association should contribute to finding a solution rather than automatically dismissing the propositions that have been brought to the table.

A resident of Eaton Mill I certainly am, but the Water Eaton Residents' Association doesn't represent me.

YOUR COMMENTS POSTED ON FACEBOOK.COM/ONEMKNEWS

Iceman69: "I live in Tiffany Close and there are traffic issues. These being that emergency vehicles would not be able to get through at certain times of the day due to irresponsible parking.

However, there is a balance to be made and a lot of the residents are moaning for the sake of it. Yes it's very busy but as long as we can get people to park respectfully I have no issues.

Equally we cannot block every suggestion the school has to solve this problem as we will be going round in circles. Too many nimbys and too much stubbornness in this whole sorry scenario and not enough commonsense to sort the problem."

Samantha Pancheri: "The roads around the school

oneMK.co.uk

Sofa so good

OneMK.co.uk/marketplace.html

entrance are particularly narrow and are cul-de-sacs.

They are not suitable for anything beyond residents' access and it is short-sighted to pretend otherwise.

To meet the growing demand for school places, the local authority MUST be permitted to build new school sites in the area and must also invest in better public transport links to reduce the number of cars on the road altogether."

Liz Caffrey: "This is all very shocking to me as if you go to any school in MK it is like this at drop off and collection times, so because this school was built in a more built-up area (by the way most of the people complaining are in the newer built properties) this school should not be allowed to better its facilities for the sake of their students? All because the residents don't like the look of the building or the noise of the children?

If the council is going to build more and more houses within Bletchley/MK then it is going to have to build more schools.

Children's education is the most important thing so stop going to the school and causing arguments. Instead go to the council and tell it to build another school in the area to take the pressure of this school and accommodate future new children from future builds in the area."

Rachel Sing Leton WarkUgh: "They should use school buses like in my school district in America. All kids are bussed. No traffic issues."

Hayley Ramswell: "The residents have made the situation worse.

They park on the road to block it up. They themselves don't leave room for emergency vehicles.

The parking has got extremely bad in the past year alone. The school is getting too big and cannot accommodate the amount of cars that need to go to and from at peak times.

The school wants to put in a through road to ease the parking situation but the residents oppose this also. There is no way to keep the residents happy."

Lauren Alexia Smith: "I agree some people have lack of commonsense regarding parking but you can't coat all the people with the same brush! There will always be a problem with parking. Simple answer is build an access road or quit moaning!"

Richard Daubney: "Parents using their cars to collect the kids are the problem. Make the kids walk home and get some exercise."

Illyan Cooper: "Some parents have to go straight to work from school and again straight from work to collect kids.
My kids go here and we don't drive. However, we got caught up in the residents' aggressive behaviour – this whole situation is ridiculous they complain about everything."

Barry O'Leary: "Houses came after school. They knew they were buying next to a school so why so surprised?"

City is the place to set up a business

BY PHILIP MCELENEY
editor@mk-news.co.uk

MILTON Keynes is a focal point for new business and has one of the highest start-up rates in the UK, according to research from renowned independent think tank Centre for Cities.

In the Small Business Outlook 2015 report – published by Centre for Cities on Monday – Milton Keynes was shown to have the second-highest number of business start-ups per population in the UK.

The report – which looked at small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) – also found Milton Keynes has the second highest proportion of SMEs in the high-tech and digital sectors.

The most recent data – from 2013 – shows there are 67.7 business starts per 10,000 people in Milton Keynes, which is beaten only by London.

Pete Marland, Milton Keynes Council leader said: "This is excellent news and shows the spirit of the entrepreneur is alive and well in Milton Keynes.

"The city's success is based on a blend of innovation and a strong entrepreneurial culture alongside our delivering homes and jobs in a balanced way.

"What also makes Milton Keynes special is our geographical location and accessibility. People want to work here and we're increasingly attracting the high levels of skilled people that companies need to develop and grow."

In a report earlier this year, the Centre for Cities found overall job creation in MK is the highest in the UK – with 24,400 new jobs in Milton Keynes created between 2004 and 2013 – a rise of 18.2 per cent.

Henry's Park: To be officially opened on Tuesday

Pub park built in Henry's memory

BY SARAH LEE
editor@mk-news.co.uk

THE owners of a pub have donated a patch of land to a charity so a park could be built in memory of a young cancer sufferer.

The park, in the garden of the Galleon Pub in Wolverton, features a wishing well, pirate ship-themed slide and play area, flower pots and banners in honour of Henry Allen. It will be officially opened on Tuesday.

The land was donated to the Henry Allen Trust, which was created in memory of the four-year-old from Bletchley who died in October 2013 after suffering with neuroblastoma – a children's cancer that affects the nervous system.

Dawn Allen, Henry's mum and founder of the trust, said: "It's coming up to Henry's second angel anniversary and I can't thank the guys in Team Henry enough for collecting paint and material from local companies and members of the public to help build Henry's Park.

"I must thank the awesome guys at The Galleon too, George and Jonathan, for dedicating the park to my little man.

"Henry loved pirates and parks and I'm absolutely honoured and so privileged to have this park built in his name.

"I can't believe all the local community have rallied together to help Team Henry. With Henry's second angel anniversary coming up my biggest fear was that Henry would be forgotten but this is just amazing. It means the world to me."

Jonathan Ballard, owner of the The Galleon pub, said: "We've always supported Henry's mum – she's just amazing and we wanted to do something to help the trust."

The Lionesses roar again: Footballers and volunteers at Woburn and Wavendon Football Club are back in business after an arson at Wavendon Gate School destroyed all of their playing equipment, including football posts, nets and bibs

Rising from ashes

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

VOLUNTEERS have rallied together to get a football club back on its feet following a devastating arson attack that destroyed all of its equipment.

A fire at Wavendon Gate School in Gregories Drive in April damaged one of the school's buildings and a shed, as reported by MK NEWS at the time.

Woburn and Wavendon Football Club housed its equipment in the shed, which included football posts, nets and bibs.

Luckily the timing of the arson meant the football club had the summer months to replace the equipment and volunteers have been working non-stop to get teams up and running again.

Walton Community Council also contributed a donation of about £250 to help the club replace some of the items.

"It took a lot of people a lot of effort to build up the equipment we had," said Robert Hill, vice-chairman of the football club.

"The grant from the council was a big boost to us in terms of getting things up and running again.

"Fortunately it was at the latter part of the football season and we had the summer to get reestablished."

The club has teams aged from under sevens to under 17s with its Lions boys teams and the Lionesses have teams from under 10s to senior ladies.

The teams play football at five locations, including Wavendon Gate School, Wavendon Recreational Ground and Aspley Guise Common.

Charity puts feet first

DIABETES UK held a free foot care education workshop at the Milton Keynes Conference Centre in Oldbrook on Monday as part of its Putting Feet First campaign.

Sufferers have a greater risk of foot amputations due to the damage raised blood sugars can cause to sensation and circulation. Figures show the number of people in the MK area with a diabetes -related amputation has increased to 3.1 per 1,000 per year from 2.9 in 2013.

One of those is 49-year-old Julie Pope, from Heelands, who had a toe amputated in October last year. She said: "When I was first diagnosed 23 years ago I was simply given a booklet and some leaflets and told to get on with it."

Woman hurt in crash with car

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

AN 18-YEAR-OLD pedestrian was left needing hospital treatment after being hit by a car.

A silver Mazda MX5 collided with the woman in V6 Grafton Street, near to Heelands, at about 6.35pm on Saturday.

She suffered leg and arm injuries and received treatment at Milton Keynes University Hospital.

Investigating officer, PC Christopher Ruvolo-Jones of the Roads Policing Unit based at Milton Keynes Police Station, said: "I am appealing for witnesses who may have seen the collision, or were travelling along the V6 Grafton Street between Monks Way and Dansteed Way, near to Heelands, at that time.

"I would specifically appeal to passengers on the number five Arriva bus which was in the area at the time of the collision.

"If you have any information please contact the Thames Valley Police Enquiry Centre on 101, or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 55 111."

World cup's £50m Midas touch for city

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

MILTON Keynes is likely to receive a £50million cash boost from the Rugby World Cup (RWC).

The attendance record at stadiummk was broken three times during the week of games, with more than 30,000 at the final match between Fiji and Uruguay.

The Samoa v Japan match broke an international record with 25million people in Japan tuning in to watch, beating the previous best for a RWC match of 20.7million.

More than 12,000 people attended the Clash of Drums in CMK, produced by The Stables and IF: Milton Keynes International Festival, and more than 36,000 people visited the Fanzone in Campbell Park. There was also a New Zealand haka and a performance by pop star Will Young as part of the festivities.

Final costs and income from ticketed events are still being totted up. Milton Keynes Council believes its net contribution to transport and the full programme of events is about £700,000 but the benefit to the city is estimated at £50million.

Hannah O'Neill, deputy leader of Milton Keynes Council, said: "Hosting three Rugby World Cup pool matches is huge and has firmly put Milton Keynes on the map."

John Cove, chief executive of MK Dons SET, said: "We always knew the city would deliver on the world stage, but even this surpassed our hopes and expectations."

Steven Gordon-Wilson is the chief executive of Destination Milton Keynes. He said: "As an organisation with a remit to promote Milton Keynes as a great place to visit, we cannot sing louder about the work undertaken around the Rugby World Cup."

Big crowds: A new The attendance record was set at stadiummk

RWC IN NUMBERS

Club helps speakers overcome their fears

BY SARAH LEE
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A CLUB is helping people overcome their fear of talking in public.

Tony Fasulo, president of the speech and confidence training club Eldergate Toastmasters, said: "Speaking in front of a big group or a crowd is one of the biggest fears people face. Some people even fear talking in public more than they fear death. So we are here to help.

"It's a very supportive environment. What I've learnt has really helped me in my business life. As a bonus, it's not expensive and we have fun!"

While many join Toastmasters for work-related reasons, there are other good reasons for joining.

Club official Ian Haynes said: "One member joined so he could give the best possible speech at his own wedding; another as a follow-up to a course on managing his stutter."

Mr Haynes added that Eldergate's membership reflected the international nature of Milton Keynes. "We have members from Argentina and Australia, Nigeria and New Zealand, Spain and Switzerland. Whatever your background, you can expect a warm welcome at Eldergate."

The club, which is part of the worldwide Toastmasters International organisation, has been running for more than 30 years. It is holding an open meeting for anyone interested in conquering their fears and developing their speaking skills at the National Badminton Centre in Loughton at 5.45pm on Monday.

LasaDerm

As featured in TV'S "ASK THE DR"

AN OUTSTANDING REPUTATION

Nowadays clients want care from highly qualified practitioners who are using the latest technology and delivering the best results.
LasaDerm does just this and it does it by combining a personalised, confidential service and the friendliest team you will ever meet. So while only a small fraction of clinics across the UK made the high standards needed to win the award LasaDerm have managed to achieve this 2 years in a row. And it all stems from LasaDerm's philosophy to provide proven and effective treatments with the peace of mind that you are in the safest of hands.

PLEXR – NO CUT EYELID REMOVAL UTILISING LATEST TECHNOLOGY

LasaDerm bring you the latest plasma non surgical eyelid removal. Only clinic in Bedfordshire and Buckinghamshire to offer this procedure and there are only 10 clinics nationally that offer this procedure. This is innovation at its best – it's a tried and tested procedure that comes from Italy which requires just numbing of the eyelids with a topical anaesthetic and then utilising the new PLEXR soft tissue non surgical procedure – yes no cuts at all LasaDerm Doctors will perform upper eyelid surgery in under 30 minutes – RESULTS ARE INSTANT. Like actual eyelid surgery it doesn't mean that the results will last forever as the aging process still continues BUT THE RESULTS LAST AS LONG AS A SURGICAL PROCEDURE WOULD.

"Our aim is to be your clinic of choice in all things. it all starts with care. because when you feel good, we feel great."

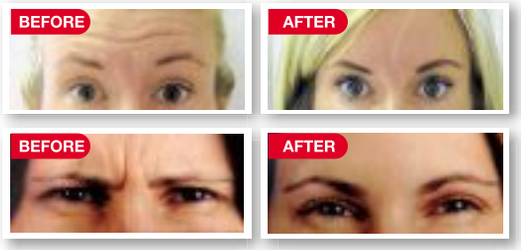
Think you're only young once?

LasaDerm gives you the low down on wrinkle reducing injections

Wrinkle Reducing Injections



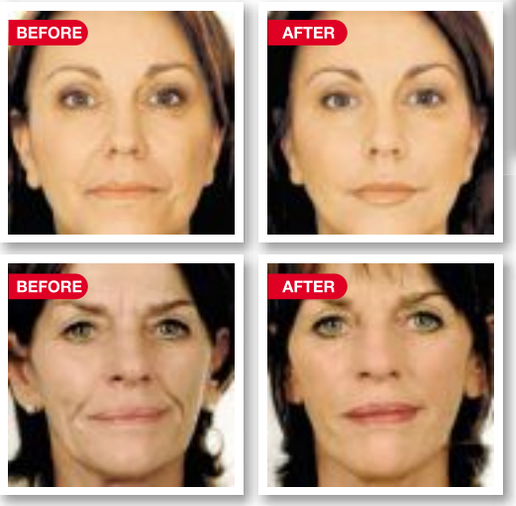
Wrinkle Reucing Injections Before & After

When it comes to softening lines and wrinkles on the forehead, between the brows, crow's feet around the eyes the popularity of Botulinum Toxin A injections or Botox shows no sign of waning. Botox is ideal for easing over-active muscle movement that can cause deep frown lines and crow's feet. Overtime the treatment-educates the muscle so you may need fewer treatments. Results can be seen in 7-10 days Botox can also be used to reduce excessive sweating and gummy smiles.

Dermal Filler

If you're starting to get those pesky fine lines, wrinkles and that sunken hollow cheek or jowly look but aren't quite on board with the 'growing old gracefully' philosophy, then you might be looking into dermal fillers. If you are considering your options for a rejuvenated appearance then the complex world of dermal fillers can be a bit of a maze to navigate. Hyaluronic acid fillers are used to soften lines and wrinkles. Hyaluronic acid is a natural substance found in the skin, but the body produces less of it as we get older, which is why a top up can be useful.

As lines are filled, skin looks firmer and younger taking 10 years off easily and the results can last up to 12 months. It's important that you go to a practitioner who has an eye for facial aesthetics. During the consultation our Doctors will show you photos of before and after clients that "THEY" have actually done. The LasaDerm clinic uses a specialised method using a cannula to inject the filler which causes less bruising and delivers a more even outcome.



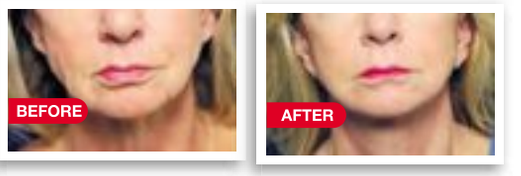
Dermal Filler Before & After

Tear Troughs (Under Eye Filler)

Hyaluronic acid shots are placed under the eye carefully by a cannula between the bone and the muscle. These fillers hide dark circles and smooth contours so light bounces uniformly off the area to give a smoother less wrinkled and light appearance. You will wake up looking refreshed and less "haggard". If dark circles are a concern you won't have to use as much concealer.

Tear Trough Before & After

Radio Frequency (RF)



Radio Frequency Before & After

If the injectable route doesn't appeal to you then the latest procedure that is creating a buzz due to its lack of side effects is Radio Frequency which is a little like ironing the skin. We know that crinkle free hair makes us feel a million times more glamorous. So if ironing can work wonders for your hair, imagine what it could do for your face.

RF is heating the dermis with a regulated pulse which stimulates collagen and elastin production. This tightens the skin's appearance and can also help to create a lifting effect. RF has the ability to lift sagging cheeks, turkey necks, jowly chins, craggy eyes and smooth out wrinkles and loose skin. RF has numerous benefits which include firmer, smoother, tighter skin with smaller pores, fewer wrinkles and softer plumper skin.

The RF procedure is quick, (can be performed during your lunch break) requiring just 20-30 min sessions 2-4 weeks apart. The effect is cumulative and gets better with each session and the results can last for up to 12 months.

The downside? It's not normally cheap. The cost is £500 for 4 treatments

BUT WE HAVE IT ON SPECIAL FOR THE LAST TIME DUE TO DEMAND - £200 FOR 4 TREATMENTS

So for those that feel guilty spending money on themselves the special offer makes it feasible or perhaps it could be the perfect Christmas gift.

Besides, think of the fun of telling inquisitive friends when they remark on your new naturally youthful look; "A facelift? No. I've just had the old one ironed."

Carping on: Taylor Wimpey's Andy Graves, left, with the firm's marketing manager for the South Midlands, Paul Cave, at Willow Lake, Newton Leys. Through ticket sales and match funding by Taylor Wimpey £1,720 has been raised

It's a fishy success

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

FISH weighing more than 40 pounds have been caught at a fishing lake in the middle of a new housing estate.

Carp of more than 40lbs have been fished from Willow Lake at the centre of the Newton Leys development being built by Taylor Wimpey to the south of the city – but there could be even bigger fish to catch in the lake.

That is according to Andy Graves, the company's sales executive and head bailiff of the lake and himself a keen fisherman, who tentatively started selling day tickets for fishing there earlier this year.

So far, his fishery sideline has raised £860, which Taylor Wimpey will match and hand on to local good causes.

"I'm hoping to use the money to fund local projects, perhaps a youth club," said Andy, a father-of-three.

"I knew that there were fish in there, but it hadn't been fished for quite a time.

"Then I had a lightbulb moment. I set up the fishing club after speaking to Taylor Wimpey and now there's a leisure activity on site, which can raise money for community projects."

Andy, 40, was intrigued by the lake when he took the job on as it measures more than 200 metres long, 150 metres wide and is believed to be up to 75 feet deep.

"Being a deep lake, the fishing isn't easy. But if you know what you're doing, the sky's the limit.

"There are carp of every size up to 42lbs so far and also tench, bream, perch, rudd and roach. I've heard there may be monster catfish there too, but I haven't seen that for myself."

glennmiller

MUSIC legend Tommy Steele, Britian's first rock 'n' roll icon, is coming to Milton Keynes with The Glenn Miller Story.

The musical is about the world's most famous big band leader who disappeared without trace 70 years ago during the Second World War.

The production features a spectacular 16-piece orchestra on stage plus sensational performers and dazzling choreography. Andrew Corcoran, the musical director, said: "It is very rare to see a full orchestra on the stage and you come out of the show buzzing.

"It has been a trend since 2000 for people to show more interest in the sounds of the Second World War and want to hear instruments live instead of recordings.

"Tommy is having an absolute ball on the show, he has great experience and he knows what the audience want. I last came to Milton Keynes Theatre with Wicked and the city is a fascinating place and there is no place in the UK like it."

The show will be at Milton Keynes Theatre from Monday, to Saturday, October 31. Tickets cost between £21.40 and £48.90.

See www.onemk.co.uk for more details.

talentedwheatus

FAMOUS for their hit Teenage Dirtbag in 2000, things haven't been plain sailing for Wheatus since then.

Talented though they remain, they have to scrape recording and touring budgets together by selling last year's gear on ebay.

Lead singer Brendan Brown said: "It's an interesting paradox that people won't buy music but they still buy the stuff to make it and that we can carry on that way."

Wheatus are playing at The Craufurd Arms in Wolverton on Saturday.

Doors open at 7.30pm and tickets can be bought from £15 from www.thecraufurdarms.com

IN THE latest monthly column, JOE EATON from THE PARKS TRUST writes about Hazeley Wood

HAZELEY Wood has many features – one of which is the enormous grass rides that cut directly through the woodland, opening up striking views.

They provide peaceful, quiet locations for walking and picnicking, as well as being great for spotting local wildlife.

As Hazeley Wood is still in development, it still requires lots of care and attention and a thinning programme is about to be started.

The wood is rich with wildlife because of its location. Being on the edge of the city means that it is largely quiet and undisturbed.

During the summer season the grass rides are filled with wildflowers that attract masses of butterflies as well as other insects.

The wood is the subject of a long term survey by naturalists, known as the Hazeley Wood Study Group. The purpose of this work is to monitor the changes in flora and fauna as the woodland matures.

Towards the end of the year the woodland becomes a fantastic place to see autumn and winter fungi.

The wood is next to the new Grange Farm estate at the western end of H4 Dansteed Way and the northern end of V3 Fulmer Street.

iLOVE CHRISTMAS PANTO HISTORY

'It's behind you!'

A look at the history of pantomime

How did pantomime become the marvellous (if eccentric) form of entertainment it is today? And how did it become part of Christmas? We take a look at the colourful origins of this unique tradition:

PANTOMIME is a dynamic art form that is as much influenced as much by current affairs and political activities as it is by its original purpose, to dramatise the mystical events of Christmas. Nowadays, it is a uniquely British form of entertainment found nowhere else in the world.

But oddly, it appears to have originally derived from traditional Italian entertainment.

Early pantos were stylised productions containing certain very recognisable characters, in what was what we should term today, a 'classical Harliquinade' with traceable pagan origins.

The Harlequin, messenger of the gods, could be recognised by his wand and winged cap. Some pantomimes even contained a Punch-like figure, though a more friendly character than one encounters in the classic Punch and Judy show. Then called Mr. 'Ponch', he was apparently also known in Roman times under the name of Maccus.

These early pantos were full of satire and featured some pretty racy scenes.

But the British theatre-goer would not have recognised the Italian original in the rather less boisterous British version.

Where British performances favour daft jokes, slapstick and a sprinkling of innuendo, the Italian entertainment itself had its roots way back in the early Middle Ages and performers were held in high esteem.

It was David Garrick, an 18th century actor-manager from London, who recognised the festive potential of this quirky dramatic form. "If they won't come to Lear and Hamlet", he famously said, "I must give them Harlequin".

In order to avoid criticism from his peers and maintain a reputation, Garrick set about changing pantomime's cultural identity, partly by limiting Drury Lane pantomimes to the Christmas season.

Pantomimes became associated with the fun and frivolity of the holiday season rather than being denounced as a threat.

In doing so, Garrick created a convention which has survived to this day.

It's not just families who enjoy these fun-filled spectacles – the festive panto has become popular amongst celebrities keen to get their glad rags on. Soap stars such as Barbara Windsor are regularly seen touring the country alongside other household names such as David Hasselhoff and Lily Savage.

iLOVE CHRISTMAS PANTO

It's that time of the year again – oh yes, it is - with just the carving of the pumpkins and the popping of fireworks left to come, which means Christmas is well and truly on the horizon.

And for theatre folk, Christmas means one thing and one thing only... PANTO SEASON (and the mince pies and mulled wine, of course).
But for many of you, finding a panto and deciding which one to go to is never an easy task.
So we have taken the liberty of making it all a little easier for you, by putting together a guide of pantos in and around our region - including Northamptonshire, Bedfordshire, Milton Keynes and Cambridge.

This year's offerings, listed below, include the fairy tale of Cinderella (in three theatres across our region!), a certain Beauty and a Beast, Jack and the Beanstalk and Aladdin.

NORTHAMPTONSHIRE

Royal and Derngate theatre: Cinderella

The famous rags-to-riches fairy tale will be brought magically to life by a wonderful cast led by actor, dancer, singer and television presenter John Partridge (EastEnders). He is joined by CBeebies legend Sid Sloane, as well as impressionist Danny Posthill and vocalist Alison Jiear, both fresh from their appearance on this year's Britain's Got Talent.
Packed with all of the traditional Royal & Derngate pantomime ingredients its audiences have come to expect, Cinderella features stunning scenery, plenty of boos and hisses, incredible music and dancing, plus Pegasus, the amazing flying horse - all of which will ensure that you will have a ball!
When: December 11, 2015 - January 3, 2016
Tickets: From £11 - £28
Book: Visit http://www.royalandderngate.co.uk/ or call 01604 624811.

The Deco theatre: Beauty and The Beast

This spellbinding all family pantomime is full of music, magic and mayhem, special effects, breathtaking sets, loads of laughs and lavish costumes.
The Deco's magical pantomime tells the story of Beauty, the beautiful daughter of the mayor of the town Stoney-broke, She longs for romance excitement and adventure, but little does she realise they will come when she becomes the prisoner of a monstrous Beast in return for her father's freedom.
The Beast (really a handsome Prince) must learn to love and be loved – only then will he regain his true form and live – yes you've guessed it – happily ever after but he must do this before the last petal of an enchanted rose falls or he will be forever a beast!
Coronation Street's Nick Cochrane (Andy McDonald) will play Silly Billy, X factor finalist Lydia Lucy will be Beauty, Hollyoaks' Karl James Wilson will perform as the Beast/ Prince, and Emmerdale and Midsommer Murder's Tony Howes will play Nurse Jackie O lala.
When: December 11, 2015 - December 29, 2015
Tickets: From £15.50 - £20.50
Book: Visit www.thedeco.co.uk or call 01604 622749.

Kettering Lighthouse theatre: Jack and the Beanstalk.

Fee-Fi-Fo Fum…..he's 12ft tall with a hairy … beard, and we don't mean Dame Trott! Join intrepid Jack on the adventure of a lifetime as he bounds up the beanstalk to do battle with Giant Blunderbore. Does Dame Trott finally get her man? Can Simple Simon work out which end of the cow needs milking?
Find out in a Pantomime that scales new heights, with a spectacular stomping giant, fabulous live band and all the magic and mayhem of a traditional Christmas.
Starring Carley Stenson (Hollyoaks and Legally Blonde), Steven Pinder (Brookside) and Kevin Pallister (Emmerdale)

Tickets: From £14.50
Book: Visit http://lighthousetheatre.co.uk/ or call 01536 414141.

Wellingborough Castle: A Christmas Carol

Ebenezer Scrooge is a mean old man and he doesn't believe in Christmas. He doesn't have time for family and friends, in fact he'd rather spend the season alone at home, counting his money. Well, this year we're going to show mean old Ebenezer Scrooge what he's been missing…
Winter is cold and stories are told to warm the heart.
This Christmas, The Castle presents an exciting, gloriously entertaining and genuinely heart-warming new adaptation of Charles Dickens' classic story. Packed with songs and jokes and festive shenanigans, spooks and surprises, it's a tall tale with a truly uplifting message for the festive season.
Ebenezer Scrooge is not a bad man, not really. He used to be a good man and, with our help, he will be again...
A Christmas Carol is a musical fantasy for all the family, silly enough for grown-ups and smart enough for children of all ages.
When: December 7, 2015 - December 29, 2015
Tickets: From £13
Book: Visit https://www.thecastle.org.uk/ or call 01933 229022.

The Core at Corby Cube: Aliens love Underpants

This zany and hilarious tale based on the best-selling children's book is wonderfully brought to life on stage. With stunning effects, madcap action, original music (and lots of aliens of course!) this fantastically fresh and funny production will delight the whole family.

Book: Visit http://www.thecorecorby.com/ or call 01536 470470.

BEDFORDSHIRE

Bedford Corn Exchange: Beauty and The Beast

Celebrating their tenth anniversary, the players – all local amateurs who give up their time for free – hope to raise a record amount for local childrens' charities.
When: December 28, 2015 - January 3, 2016
Tickets: From £11 - £16 cost £16 for adults
Book: Visit http://www.bedfordcornexchange.co.uk/events/whats-on/ or call 01234 718044.

Dunstable Grove theatre: Cinderella

Will Cinderella meet the man of her dreams? Will Prince Charming win our heroine's heart? And will the Ugly Sisters stop Cinders from going to the ball? All will be revealed this Christmas, in the spectacular pantomime, Cinderella.
Blue's Antony Costa stars as Prince Charming, and he will be joined on stage by CBBC presenter, YouTube sensation and comedian Mawaan Rizwan, who will be playing Buttons.
With a fabulous five piece band, stunning sets and costumes, and all the laughs and traditions that panto entails, you won't want to miss out.

Joining Priscilla is comedian Gary Wilmot in Old Peking as the Chinese Laundry owner, Widow Twankey.
Dance world legend Wayne Sleep OBE brings his own choreographic Genie-us to the show as the Genie of the Ring.
Meanwhile, singer/songwriter ex A1 boyband member and BRIT award winner Ben Adams will be taking the lead role as Aladdin himself.
Aladdin audiences can bank on sensational songs played by a live band, dazzling dance routines, side-splitting slapstick comedy and bags of audience participation.
When: December 4, 2015 - January 10, 2016
Tickets: From £13.90

What Your Agent Has To Say

How to sell your property in six weeks

SO WE are approximately 13 weeks away from Christmas and your property is still on the market with not much happening?

However, don't give up on the thought of selling before Christmas because you still can! As the Director of VA Property Consultants, a buzzing vibrant estate agency in Luton Town Centre, I would like to help make this happen by giving you some top tips to selling your house in six weeks.

Tip No. 1 Lighten up those rooms. If you have a dark room, add a table lamp or a nice decorative floor lamp in the corner but don`t go over the top and put every light on in the house unnecessarily. You need just enough light to give each room a glow as many of your viewings now will be in the afternoon and early evenings after the sun has gone down so your property needs to light itself up and sell.

Tip No. 2 De-clutter the hallway. Make a great first impression with your entrance hallway as this is the first internal room the buyer will see. Make it warm and enticing so potential buyers want to see more of your home. If it's cluttered, the first impression of your house is that it's cramped, rather than open and spacious. Move unnecessary items such as hanging coats, muddy shoes and the hoover out of sight and instead put flowers on the hall table, it is so easy and creates an instant good feeling about the house

Tip No. 3 Let the air in and breathe. Musty-smelling rooms are off-putting and make people want to get out before they have even noticed the stunning ceiling rose. As it's autumn you can still open windows without the fear of making the house feel too cold, and don't forget to air any rarely used rooms – especially teenagers' bedrooms.

VA Property Consultants are ready at the end of the phone to give you lots of free advice and practical tips to help sell your property fast this winter.

VA are an independent small family run estate agent with a personal mission to sell your property at the best possible price, in the shortest time, with minimal stress to you so you can move on with your life and be happy! We are so confident that we are saying to all our clients that if we don't sell your house in six weeks we will reduce our 1% fee!

Put us to the test and call for a chat about selling your property today on 01582 346 203 and speak with me, Venessa Afonja, the Director of the Company, personally and I will get the clock ticking!

The new BMW M2

The new BMW M2 is the latest compact sports coupe in a long line of legendary road and racing BMWs, such as the 2002 Turbo, E30 M3 and 1M Coupé. Cast in a similar mould, it brings the concept right up to date with the latest in motor sport derived technology. The result is a powerful performer that delivers genuine driver satisfaction on the road, and extreme capability on the racing circuit.

Powered by a new, specifically developed, 3.0-litre straight-six engine with BMW TwinPower Turbo technology, the latest product from BMW M GmbH produces a formidable 370hp, enabling an electronically-limited top speed of 155mph. When equipped with the optional seven-speed M DCT gearbox, the M2 can sprint from rest to 62mph in just 4.3 seconds.

This level of performance is expressed visually via unique enhancements to the base 2 Series Coupé body, majoring on style but also reflecting the aerodynamic, cooling and chassis requirements of the new car. The BMW M engineers have worked tirelessly to reduce weight wherever possible, improve rigidity and hone the M2's responses via sophisticated chassis technology and electronics to deliver a truly rewarding drive.

The six-cylinder engine of the new BMW M2 is entirely in keeping with the finest BMW M tradition. It offers unbeatable driving fun on a racing circuit, yet remains completely civilised in everyday use. With an appetite for revs not normally associated with a turbocharged engine, it features an exceptionally linear power delivery and strong torque across a broad rev range, all delivered with a distinctive engine sound. Rapid responses and excellent efficiency are amongst the benefits of BMW's innovative M TwinPower Turbo technology.

The new 3.0-litre engine possesses an output of 370hp at 6,500rpm and will rev to 7,000rpm, while peak torque of 465Nm is on tap between 1,400 and 5,560rpm. An overboost function raises this figure by 35Nm to 500 Nm between 1,450 and 4,750rpm. Despite this potent performance, the combined fuel consumption is 33.2mpg when fitted with a six-speed manual gearbox, and 35.8mpg with the optional M DCT. The CO2emissions are 199g/km and 185g/km respectively.

The new BMW M2 comes as standard with a six-speed manual gearbox, featuring dry-sump lubrication and an engagement speed control function that blips the throttle on downshifts and lowers the engine's revs on upshifts.

The new BMW M2 sees BMW M GmbH building on the success of the BMW 1 Series M Coupé. It continues the tradition of the legendary original BMW M3 – the E30 from 1986 – a car famed for its blend of agility and precision, as well as its supremacy on the racing circuit and rally stage. Looking further back, the M2 can also be seen as a close descendant of a car from 40 years ago: the BMW 2002 turbo, which was the first mass-produced turbocharged car offered for sale in Germany. With 170hp and a zero to 62mph time of 8.9 seconds, the performance may have been some way off the new M2, but the spirit of driver enjoyment is the same.

SsangYong Tivoli

YONG AT HEART

The SsangYong Tivoli takes the fight to compact crossovers like the Nissan Juke and the Renault Captur with budget pricing, a gutsy 125PS engine and build quality the like of which you wouldn't credit at this price point. As long as SsangYong can promote this car effectively, it could be their breakthrough vehicle.

The Koreans certainly haven't done things by halves here. This is no cut-down Korando chassis with a bunch of ancient carry-over engines. The Tivoli has had some serious investment thrown at it, and it shows. The chassis is all-new, albeit hardly adventurous in its suspension design, with MacPherson struts up front and a space-efficient torsion beam rear end. There's a choice of two 1.6-litre engines, a 128PS petrol unit and a 115PS diesel. Buyers can select either 2WD or 4WD model variants and prices start affordably from around £13,000.

The 1.6 petrol unit will get to 62mph in a relatively relaxed 12 seconds and is offered as standard with a six-speed manual gearbox. Pay a little more and you can pair this engine with a six-speed automatic, which is the same unit as seen in the latest MINI, albeit with a bit less sportiness built into the shift logic. Longer term plans could well see three and four-cylinder turbocharged powerplants find their way into the Tivoli. Other items of note? SsangYong's introducing a selectable weight steering system with Comfort, Normal and Sport settings and some surprisingly big wheels. Go for the smaller alloys if you value ride quality.

The Tivoli is one of those cars that the longer you look at it, the more design influences you can see. There's something of the Kia Soul in its overall proportioning, with a Nissan Juke-like rear haunch, a front end that's modern Renault in a good way, some Citroen DS3 about the rear three quarter and an interior that's glitzy in an upper-model Vauxhall way. There's nothing about this car that says SsangYong and, to many, that will be a good thing. Perhaps the Koreans need to work a bit at developing their own family look. It's not there yet, but the Tivoli is by no stretch of the imagination a bad looking car.

Nor indeed is it a cheap looking one. The detailing such as the floating effect roof, the satin roof rails and the materials quality of the interior are at least as good as, if not better than, many of its mainstream rivals. The cabin certainly feels as if it's been the recipient of better quality dash panels and seats than, say, a Nissan Juke. The boot measures 423-litres to the parcel shelf, which is perfectly adequate in this class.

Despite the optimism surrounding the Tivoli's prospects, SsangYong is tempering its expectations, only targeting 1,000 UK sales per year. It's actually fairly easy to see where those sales could come from and who a typical Tivoli owner might be, which isn't always the case with many new cars. In other words, we think there's room in the market for a car with a low asking price but which doesn't look or feel cheap.

Remember that this first model is just a toe in the water. The petrol engine might not be the most impressive powerplant you've ever sampled, but from here we get diesels, all-wheel drive models and a new wave of turbocharged variants, so even if you're not in the market for a budget crossover just at present, keep your eye on this one because it's only going to get better. The big players in this sector might not be worried yet, but SsangYong here delivers some wholly convincing arguments as to why that won't always be so.

Ferrari reveals the F12tdf

Ferrari has revealed the F12tdf which pays homage to the Tour de France, the legendary endurance road race that Ferrari dominated in the 1950s and '60s, particularly with the 1956 250 GT Berlinetta which won four consecutive editions. It was a race that rewarded cars that combined maximum performance with the driveability and ease of use that enabled the competitors to race for hundreds of kilometres a day over fast, tortuous roads and on circuits. The F12tdf is the ultimate expression of the concept of an extreme road car that is equally at home on the track, and just 799 will be built.

The sixth generation of the BMW 7 Series is announced

DONS COLUMN

James Reeve, who posts his Cowshed Commentaries blog on our website. Get involved at onemk.co.uk/community

KARL Robinson's men showed what they are capable of against Blackburn and were hoping for more of the same at Huddersfield last night.

The wait finally came to an end for Dons fans at the weekend, who saw their team claim their first league victory since a 1-0 win over Bolton Wanderers back on August 18.

The boys from MK1 headed into the recent international break knowing that they could take on teams in the Championship, despite losing five consecutive league games.

During most of those matches they dominated possession, but they were let down by a lack of a legitimate threat in front of goal.

As stated in a previous article, the Dons averaged 56.4 per cent of possession across those five league defeats, but only 15.2 per cent of their shots at goal were on target.

Since earning a point against Bristol City, the Dons have looked more decisive in front of goal, while still maintaining the majority of possession.

Across the two matches before last night's game, the Dons averaged 61 per cent possession and improved to 40.6 per cent of shots being on target.

The result of this new decisiveness was four points in two matches and a renewed belief that the Dons can survive in the Championship going forward.

Ben Reeves had a stellar match for the Dons on Saturday, earning two goals thanks to an 11th minute penalty and a well taken close-range shot in the 89th minute.

Simon Church built on the good feeling he got from the Wales national team's Euro 2016 qualification, netting an impressive header in the 71st minute.

But the one player that truly stood out for the Dons was loan signing Josh Murphy.

The Norwich City loanee, playing out on the left, caused multiple problems for Blackburn's defenders and truly gave the Dons the threatening attack they have been needing in recent weeks.

He earned the Dons a penalty in the 11th minute, had shots come close in both halves of the match, made multiple runs against Rovers' defence and generally made his opponents nervous and hesitate to get close to him, allowing him space to make a number of crosses.

Before last night's game, Huddersfield Town were sitting one place below the boys from MK1 in 17th – thanks to the Dons' better goal difference.

The Dons needed to head to West Yorkshire with the same mentality that they took into the match with Blackburn and needed to play with the same tempo, decisiveness and clinical approach in front of goal.

If the rest of the season provides Dons fans with performances such as that at Blackburn, the future looks a little bit brighter for the team that lost every match in September.

There is hope once more.

ICE HOCKEY

Flying high: Lewis Hook in action during Lightning's 8-2 demolition of Basingstoke Bison

Lightning go top with double win

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

HOT shot Blaz Emersic more than doubled his goals tally for the season as he played a major part in Lightning's back-to-back wins over Basingstoke Bison and Bracknell Bees at the weekend.

The Slovenian grabbed the final two of Lightning's goals in their 8-2 demolition of high flying Bison before helping himself to a hat-trick in less than half an hour's play to secure his team's 3-1 victory at Bees the following day.

For much of the time, Emersic plays the role of unsung hero, preferring to set up his younger line mates, Lewis Hook and Jordan Cownie, with scoring opportunities.

But at the weekend he took the starring role with Hook registering just twice against Bison.

Marko Luomala, who also notched up two goals, was man of the match against Bison but on Sunday there was inevitably only one choice in Emersic.

On Saturday Lightning were more clinical than they have been all season and were 2-0 in front within the first six minutes.

Lightning were dominating the opening minutes but as the period went on Bison finally began to have more of the play.

The interval worked to Bison's detriment because just two minutes after the restart the home side extended their lead through Luomale. Jack Watkins made it four, Bobby Chamberlain got the fifth and Hook put Lightning in dreamland at 6-0 before Emersic began his late show and the match finished 8-2.

At The Hive it was Bees who took a 1-0 lead after nine minutes through Callum Fowler goal.

But then Emersic was at it again as he bagged a hat-trick to give Lightning a 3-1 success.

Next up for the English Premier League table toppers are basement club Hull Pirates at the MK Arena on Saturday before they travel to Telford Tigers on Sunday.

FORMULA ONE

Back to the beginning for Kvyat

DANIIL Kvyat returns to the track where he made his Formula One debut this weekend as the US Grand Prix looms in Austin, Texas.

The Circuit of the Americas in 2013 was where the Russian driver ran his first ever race in the sport for Red Bull's sister team Toro Rosso and he is looking forward to getting back to the track.

"I made my F1 debut there and that was a big moment in my career," said Kvyat.

"The race last year was, I would say, unlucky in that we had really good pace but I had to pit for a vibration with the tyre after overtaking Kimi Raikkonen, but I have very positive memories of the circuit.

"The track is really good. It has a lot of high-speed corners, heavy braking, long straights, a bit of everything really, so it's great for racing, very enjoyable."

Kvyat currently sits just three points ahead of his teammate Daniel Ricciardo in seventh place, so there is a lot to play for in their mini-battle to finish ahead of each other.

But the Australian is concentrating on America this weekend, and Ricciardo says that the Texan track is a great place for overtaking.

"For a modern-day circuit with lots of run off, they've done the best job possible. They've created a track that's safe but managed to ensure it's still fun. It's probably the best overtaking circuit on the calendar."

Last year, Ricciardo donned Wolverine-esque facial hair, and he said he wants to do something similar this time around.

He said: "I'll probably do something – but no promises."

SPORTSSHORTS

NON-LEAGUE FOOTBALL

NEWPORT Pagnell beat Eynesbury Rovers 3-0 midweek thanks to goals from Fazel Koriya, Darryl Smith and Keith Williams but they lost 1-0 at home to Wisbech Town in the United Counties Premier Division. In Division One Olney Town beat Wellingborough Whitworth 4-3 as Aidan McLean and Jack Werndly bagged a brace apiece.

In the Spartan South Midlands Division Two, Wolverton Town lost 3-0 at home to Tring Corinthians, while Clean Slate were beaten 6-0 by table toppers Hale Leys United. Old Bradwell United won 2-0 at Amersham Town. In the Division Two Cup, Stony Stratford Town beat Grendon Rangers 5-0.

In the Milton Keynes Sunday Football League, AFC Santander won 1-0 at Buckingham United A, while Stony Stratford Town beat Wolverton Town 4-2. Scot FC won 3-0 at Stoke Hammond and The Garage MK triumphed 2-1 against North Western United.

HOCKEY

MILTON Keynes Ladies' excellent early season form continued as they beat Maidenhead Seconds 3-1 in the South Clubs' Women's Hockey League. Somehow, despite winning five of their first Division 3A matches, they are still not top though, as Hampstead and Westminster Seconds hold that honour. The men lost 2-1 at home to Old Cranleighans.

ATHLETICS

OLYMPIC and World Long Jump champion and Marshall Milton Keynes Athletics Club's Greg Rutherford shook off tough opposition to be awarded the 2015 European male athlete of the year title in Lausanne, Switzerland.

There were two excellent performances on the roads from MMKAC. Liam Smith was placed 15th in the Birmingham Half Marathon with a club leading time of the year, 71.26. Gary Blaber ran a PB of 2:46.21 finishing eighth in the Abingdon Marathon. Geoff New ran the Amsterdam Marathon and finished just short of his target time of 3:20 with 3:20.59. In the half-marathon, Karen Bugai and Vanessa Stride ran 2:04.03 and 2:08.50 respectively.

There were age group successes on the cross-country scene for the Brent family and Di Farmer. At the annual Ampthill event (five miles), Debra Brent was first W50 (41.25) and Di first W55 (43.04). Martin Brent was placed 37th overall in 36.59.

TABLE TENNIS

PETER Bannister got off the mark for MK Walking Wounded but that did not stop them from losing 6-4 against Greenleys Monarchs in the Milton Keynes Table Tennis League.

MK Kingpins were lucky to get away with a 5-5 draw against MK Sasaki after two of their members were struck with flu-like symptoms. Greenleys Kings beat MK Powers 9-1 and Craig Brown couldn't have picked an easier match for his return in MK Spinners' 10-0 win against MK Phoenix.

TAEKWONDO

STUDENTS from the BBTA Taekwondo School travelled down to Hatfield to take part in the LTSI English Ppen competition.

Charlie Stewart (red belt second kup) entered two categories – patterns and sparring – and beat off stiff competition to return with two medals. She earned a silver and bronze medal respectively. Ron Simpkin (black belt first dan) and Kanukai Mundle-Simpkin (red belt first kup) were also back in action and Ron won a bronze medal.

Anyone wishing to learn about taekwondo can phone 07877 971342.

BADMINTON

TWELVE months after reaching the French Open final, Chris and Gabby Adcock will be hoping to go one better in this year's tournament. They lost in the quarter-final of the Danish Open last week to Chinese pair Liu Cheng and Bao Yixin 23-25, 18-21.

Lightning celebrate double win

Errors cost Dons vital away point

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

TWO defensive errors gave Huddersfield Town victory in a gritty affair in West Yorkshire.

Kyle McFadzean's mistake gave Nakhi Wells all the time he needed to slot the ball beyond David Martin in the 58th minute and a mistake from the keeper meant that Jamie Paterson was able to round off the game for the Terriers and seal a 2-0 win.

The best chance for Dons came in the first five minutes when Nicky Maynard was inches away from connecting with a Josh Murphy cross.

It had been a good few days for Dons with a 3-0 win over 10-man Blackburn Rovers on Saturday thanks to a Ben Reeves brace and a goal from Simon Church.

Darren Potter also signed a one-year extension to his contract on Monday, which lasts until the end of the 2017 season.
